

Advent House Resident Reference || 2017-2018 School Year

_____ has applied for a student resident position in Advent House at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville for the coming academic year. Within this community, maturity, openness and being able to carry through with responsibilities are important and valuable qualities. At its heart, the experience is a lesson in Christian community where a select group of young adults become part of Advent House student leadership (informally).

The applicant provided us with your name as a reference. We would appreciate your responses to the following questions concerning this individual. All of your responses will be held in the strictest confidence. Feel free to use this sheet or to use a different sheet. Your responses may be mailed to the address at the end of these questions or can be e-mailed to Advent House at mlawrence@gccsda.com.

Sincerely,

Michaela Lawrence Jeffery
Chaplain/Director

1. What are the applicant's strongest leadership skills? Which skills are growing areas?

2. What insight, if any, can you offer concerning the applicant's religious commitment or involvement?

3. When forced to deal with difficult situations or personality clashes, how does the applicant tend to deal with a problem?

4. If chosen to participate in the program, the individual would be living in a small, demanding community with little privacy and where the very nature of the community life is to reveal one's self and share with others. In your judgment, how do you think the applicant would respond?
